New tour announced

We are going on tour again! After we finish our current tour, you will only have to wait a year before we tour again. The new tour will be about our upcoming album "Love again". It will be an European tour, with stops like Rome, Paris and more. We are already excited to see you again. We will keep you updated for more information.

Our first festival coming up

For the first time we will be playing at a festival. For the longest time we have only done concerts, so this will be an hole new experience for us. We're looking forward to it. Our first festival will be Pinkpop which is in Landgraaf in the Netherlands. This year we are also coming to another festival in Firenze, named Firenze rock. so a lot of new things heading our way! Will you be at one of these events? Make sure you don't miss the show. We will be playing songs from our upcoming album. So don't miss it !

New album on the way!

With the sun coming from behind the clouds, we have even better news that will make your day! We have a lot of new songs in the making, that we are now recording in de studios. Our next album will be released next year in the spring. There isn't any date set yet, but you will not have to wait long. We will update as soon as we have an release date!
